Floating of public sector bonds for tapping people's savings

*60. SHRI PARVATHAN-ENI UPENDRA : Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state :

(a) whether the scheme of floating public sector bonds has failed to achieve the primary objective of tapping people's savings, particularly rural savings; and

(b) if so, what fresh steps have been taken by Government to achieve the objectives ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF EXPENDITURE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI B. K. GADHVI) : (a) The main objectives behind the scheme of Public Sector Bonds were to provide an access to these bodies to the capital market to augument their resources to undertake the development of infrastructure sectors like power, telecom, etc. and to offer an innovative investment option with tax benefits to investors. These objectives have been fulfilled and people's savings have also found a way into the Public Sector Bonds, directly as well as indirectly through the banking sector and UTI. This is in view of the very large size of most of these issues.

(b) Question does not arise.
